

Remember in Your Prayers the Soul of FRANCOIS EVERARD,

born at Tourine La Grosse, Belgium, Aug. 17, 1837; died Oct. 12, 1921, buried in St. Mary's cemetery, town of Union, Wisconsin.

As a servant longeth for the shade and as a hireling looketh for the end of his work, so I also have had empty months and have numbered to myself wearisome nights.

Job. VLL, 2-3.

For my life ended in sorrows and my years
in sighs.

Ps. XXX, 11.

God hath tried me as gold that passeth through the fire, but I have kept His way and have not declined from it. Job, XXIII, 10-11.

A patient man shall bear for a time, and afterward joy shall be restored to him.

Eccl. I, 29.

Goodbye, you all who loved me, that we may see again one another in heaven, at the feet of Jesus and Mary.

We have loved him in life, let us not forget him in death, until we have conducted him in-
to the house of the Lord.

Sweet Heart of Jesus, be my refuge.

(100 d. ind.)

Our Father.

Hail Mary.
